

Rising Tides Trails and Tunes

Sentiers et mélodies de la Marée montante

August 8 -16 août, 2020

Rising Tides, Trails and Tunes is a showcase of East Coast talent and creativity offered in the extraordinary setting of Fundy National Park and surrounding communities. From August 8th to 16th, experience a unique blend of hikes, bikes, workshops, culinary adventures, art and music. This family friendly event immerses visitors in cultural experiences celebrating nature and community – in small group settings and virtually!

Community celebrations August 8th to 14th, will be intimate gatherings of 50 people or less. Registration will be through Eventbrite and provincial guidelines for physical distancing will be implemented.

Due to physical distancing measures, Fundy National Park performances, taking place August 15th and 16th, will be virtual experiences only for all to enjoy via streaming and live broadcast.

Thanks to our partners:

Parks
Canada

Parcs
Canada

Funded by the Government of Canada
Financé par le gouvernement du Canada

Canada

PROGRAM AT A GLANCE

Community Programming

Virtual Show from Fundy National Park

Due to physical distancing measures, Fundy National Park performances, taking place August 15th and 16th, will be virtual experiences only for all to enjoy via streaming and live broadcast

Saturday, August 8th: Albert County Turns 175!

Local favourite musicians will be performing live!
Albert County Museum
Hopewell Cape, NB • 2 p.m. – 6 p.m.

Sunday, August 9th: Trails & Tunes with Hikes & Bikes!

Hike with Deb Carr, bike with Mountain Bike Atlantic, and music with Paul Toner
White Rock Recreation Centre and Garden Party
Hillsborough, NB • 2 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Monday, August 10th: Jampan & Wabi-Sabi in Albert County

Featuring Jim Kitts and Kieran Delaney
Elgin Country Kitchen and General Store
Elgin, NB • 6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Monday August 10th: Trails, Ales & Tunes

Outdoor Elements & Sussex Ale Works
Sussex, NB • 6 p.m. - 8 p.m.

Tuesday, August 11th: Crooked Creek Funky Folk Outdoor Evening

Hike with Paul Gaudet and music with Isaac Blewett & Friends
Crooked Creek Trail & Painted Haus
Riverside-Albert, NB • 6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Wednesday, August 12th: Tipsy Tales Jam Night hosted by Shane & Mars

Tipsy Tales Restaurant
Alma, NB • 8 'till late

Thursday, August 13th: Sea Caves, Street Bands and Shipyards

Hike with Redrock Adventures and music by Montgomery Street Band!
St. Martins Amphitheatre
St. Martins, NB • 6 p.m. – 8p.m.

Friday, August 14th: In the Spirit of Molly Kool

An eclectic celebration of female artists:
Karen Stentafor, Laura Lamey and Sara Liptay
Outpost Alma
Alma, NB • Noon – 7 p.m.

Sunday, August 16th: Art at the Farm & Hodge Podge

Fundy Farms - local harvest 3578 Rte 114
Hillsborough, NB • 12 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Saturday, August 15th: Virtual Performances featuring:

Mo Kenney, Christine Melanson, Émilie Turmel,
Kayla Geitzler and Brent Mason

A special SongWriters Circle with:
Mo Kenny, Christine Melanson, Kendra Gale
and Paul Toner hosted by Brent Mason

Sunday, August 16th: Virtual Performances featuring:

Mi' kmaq Legends, Saint John Quartet, and Hypochondriacs

FOLLOW US AT @RISINGTIDEFESTIVAL FOR MORE DETAILS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS ON HOW TO RESERVE TICKETS FOR COMMUNITY SHOWS ON EVENTBRITE!

EVENT DESCRIPTIONS

Saturday, August 8th: Albert County Turns 175!

Local favourite musicians will be performing live!
Albert County Museum, Hopewell Cape, NB
2 p.m. - 6 p.m.

The Albert County Historical Society will be showcasing local talent including several of the best musicians in New Brunswick featuring: Fundy Ceilidh, the Douthwrights, Todd Geldart and special performances by Paul Toner and the Nelson Duo. A highlight will be performances of original compositions written about Albert County! This event will be taking place at the Albert County Museum on the grounds in front of the Exhibition Hall. Admission is free and tickets will be available through www.albertcountymuseum.com. A special online version of the concert will be aired on August 8th.
Follow us at: Facebook.com/AlbertCountyMuseum.

This kick off to Rising Tides Trails and Tunes is part of the AC175 Celebrations which shares the stories of the Land, Sea and People of Albert County, who helped Canada become a nation, created CBC radio, helped win WWI, formed one of the of nation's beloved National Parks and live near the world's highest tides. AC175 is presented by our fabulous partners, Albert County Historical Society!

Sunday, August 9th: Trails & Tunes with Hikes & Bikes!

Hike with Deb Carr, bike with Mountain Bike Atlantic, and music with Paul Toner
White Rock Recreation Centre and Garden Party, Hillsborough, NB
2 p.m. – 5 p.m.

Join local author Deborah Carr for a leisurely hike through Hillsborough's beautiful White Rock Recreation Area trails and learn about the unique landscape and history of this 'Amazing Place' as recognized by the UNESCO designated Fundy Biosphere Reserve! Mountain Bike Atlantic & Codiac Cycling will also be on site to chat about the awesome trail system and lead a ride!

Participants will then be invited back to meet up for a Rising Tides Trails and Tunes Garden Party hosted by a local couple in the beautiful village of Hillsborough!

Monday, August 10th: Jampan & Wabi-Sabi in Albert County

Featuring Jim Kitts and Kieran Delaney
Elgin Country Kitchen and General Store, Elgin, NB
6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Enjoy a fabulous meal in Elgin's newest foodie hotspot and take in the eclectic sounds of Jim Kitts and his Russian Rav Vast B Kurd tongue drum. View the wabi-sabi influenced photography of Kieran Delaney and have a physically distanced chat with him about rural landscapes and finding a new way of seeing these places we call home.

Monday August 10th: Trails, Ales & Tunes

Outdoor Elements & Sussex Ale Works
Sussex NB
6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Join us for a leisurely pedal through the Sussex Nature trail along the river. We will begin the ride at Outdoor Elements and finish with a cold beverage and live music at Sussex Ale Works. Bikes are available for rent, please call Outdoor Elements ahead to reserve.

EVENT DESCRIPTIONS

Tuesday, August 11th: Crooked Creek Funky Folk Outdoor Evening

Hike with Paul Gaudet and music with Isaac Blewett & Friends
Crooked Creek Trail & Painted Haus, Riverside-Albert NB
6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Hike along with Paul from the Moncton Outdoor Enthusiasts Club to take in the sites, sounds and history of Crooked Creek lookout and area. The hike will take us back to the Painted Haus Art Café in the village for the delightfully fun and funky Isaac, Blewett and Friends!

Wednesday, August 12th: Tippy Tales Jam Night hosted by Shane & Mars

Tippy Tales Restaurant, Alma NB
8 'till late

A special treat for Rising Tides Trails and Tunes! Shane Douthwright and Marcel Duplessis have been playing music together for a couple decades behind hidden doors of house jams. These two musicians have performed on countless stages with bluegrass and country bands for many years. Shane is a two time winner of male vocalist of the year at the Eastern Canadian Bluegrass Music Awards. Marcel is known by most musicians in the Maritimes as a premier bass player and vocalist. Get ready for original songs, stories and some jamming with local and visiting talent on the Tippy Tales jam stage in Alma, NB!

Thursday, August 13th: Sea Caves, Street Bands and Shipyards

Hike with Redrock Adventures and music by Montgomery Street Band!
St. Martins Amphitheatre, St. Martins, NB
6 p.m. – 8p.m.

Everything you thought you knew about St. Martins but didn't!
Join Mike Carpenter from Red Rock Adventures on a harbour stroll through the heart of one of our region's most charming villages. Then, gather at the amphitheatre (yes, St. Martins has one!) for the blazing tempos & dynamic energy of the Montgomery Street Band!

Friday, August 14th: In the Spirit of Molly Kool

An eclectic celebration of female artists: Karen Stentafor, Laura Lamey and Sara Liptay
Outpost Alma, Alma NB
Noon – 7 p.m.

Join us at Outpost Alma on August 14th for a Rising Tide Festival community event!! In the Spirit of Molly Kool, the Friends of Fundy are so happy to be showcasing the talents of three female artists! An art exhibit of Laura Lamey's work will be on view, highlighting her new body of work. A pop-up Photomatic Tintype studio by Karen Stentafor will take place, limited space available. The Photomatic experience allows you to have your portrait taken, developed on traditional materials and leave with an original image documenting yourself in beautiful Alma. A musical accompaniment by Sara Liptay will complete this afternoon experience!

Sunday, August 16th: Art at the Farm & Hodge Podge

Fundy Farms - local harvest 3578 Rte 114, Hillsborough NB
12 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Join Fundy Farms for a fun, friendly and relaxing afternoon. Admission is free. Our artistic friends will be offering their pieces, live music with Steve Arsenault and friends, farm fresh Hodge Podge and Rescue Coffee Cold Brew available for purchase, guided tour through the gardens and permaculture areas, edible medicinal plant walk with Cory the Backyard Herbalist, mini woods hike on the 'old' Old Great Road with Tosh Taylor and MORE! Bring your friends, family, sunscreen, cameras, bug-spray and water bottle, we're going to have a fun day!

